KellySchmidt, State Treasurer

Introduced Jeb Oehlke as the new deputy treasurer. He will be at the meetings when Kelly cannot be present. The State Investment Board meets the third Friday of every month and she is required by law to attend those meetings. She has been getting a lot of requests for information and wanted to come and give clear answers to the committee.

Handouts included reports from the last biennium along with a glossary of information for future reference. She explained the FY 2010 report in detail. The money market account is simply a flow-through account for transactions. The savings account at the Bank of North Dakota contains the funds available to be distributed to ACOVA. For July 2009, the Total Income was $15,009.61 minus the Total Expenses of $2,489.68 for a Net Income of $12,519.93. The earnings are split between principal and interest. The expenses are split between principal and income. The Payable Income ($5,581.17) is the dollar amount available to ACOVA.

Q: Mike Fischer- When earnings are realized where it is moved to, i.e. added to a CD or start another CD?

A: It would depend on the interest rates and cash flow for ACOVA's needs. This biennium the funds will not be used because of legislative action so the fund can be given time to grow. So at the end of this biennium, she will have a total available for the next biennium.

Q: Lee Finstad- Savings account-what is that for?

A: Money is placed in this account until it can be reinvested, i.e. cashing in a CD. The turnaround time is very short for the fund deposited in the account. The Bank of North Dakota calls it a savings account when it actually functions as a suspense account.

Q: Lonnie Wangen-Is savings account same as clearing account?

A: No, they are separate accounts

Q: Mark Johnson- Do you know the balance of the Melvin Norgard Account?

A: No, she is working with OMB on the issue.

Q: Lyle Schuchard- Under Miscellaneous Expense the $10,725 (May 2010), asked the State Treasurer to explain where those funds were taken from and why

A: The funds are taken in the same format: ½ of the income that we earn from the fund, half is used to grow the fund and ½ half of it goes to benefits to veterans. Expenses are paid in the same way: ½ principal portion and ½ from income to veterans. The study was used to determine the future needs of the Veterans of ND.

Lee Finstad asked for clarification. Following the Uniform Principal and Income Act, Kelly clarified that she can pull funds from principal for expenses. These rules apply to the Postwar Trust Fund.

Lee Finstad asked for further clarification. Kelly stated when we make $100,000, 50% goes to Principal 50% goes to income to veteran's.

Commissioner Wangen brought up the subcommittee had questions on the guidelines or rules for growing the Fund. The Treasurer answered it is a growing fund. Example: income of $100,000 (dividends, interest, realized gains); $50,000 goes to the veterans (ACOVA) minus expenses and $50,000 goes to the growth of the fund. That's what was never happening before and should have been. When the Fund was originally established, it was not managed correctly. Kelly has since made the necessary changes for the fund to grow. The dollars were all being spent for veterans; it should have been a 50-50 split from the beginning.

Treasurer Schmidt stated that for all those years prior, ACOVA had been spending money it shouldn't have been spending. Commissioner Wangen clarified that the ACOVA was given money it shouldn't have been given.

Representative Brandenburg stated that he is here to listen and understand the needs of veterans. He spoke of possibility of getting more money into the fund.

Treasurer Schmidt requested the Commissioner call so there is no misunderstanding of what he is requesting. Kelly clarified that she is the trustee of fund and ACOVA cannot tell her what she can do regarding investment of the funds.

Chairman Schuchard asked the Treasurer if she would testify for an increase of the fund. Treasurer Schmidt replied she would give testimony on the status of the fund but that is the extent of her support.

Kelly stated that Tatiana Miljkovik, Statistics Department NDSU, would like to expand on the study at no cost. Kelly is checking with the Attorney General's Office on the feasibility of the proposal.

Marlys Morgenstern

► Spoke of the Gold Card Services for post 9/11 Era Veterans. A Post 9-11 veteran can go to DOL website and print-out a certificate that will entitle him/her to receive intensive employment services on a priority basis, i.e. job assistance, referrals. JSND already gives veterans priority of service.

► Spoke of 18,000 job openings; next meeting Marlys will bring information on the oil fields jobs. She said the committee go to JSND website and click on the NDWIN icon to learn more.

Laura Bearfield- Attorney General's office

Explained the AG's opinion on CVSO's serving on ACOVA (available on the Attorney General's website 2011-L-07). Essentially the opinion was based on the common law doctrine of incompatible offices; there is not an obvious incompatibility, but there is a possibility for incompatibility. The appointing authority needs to look at each individual as a possible appointee and the facts surrounding their circumstances for a potential conflict of interest. It becomes a fact finding situation for the appointing authority. The opinion recommends the Governor's office consult with ACOVA and Commissioner prior to someone's possible appointment.

Ron Otto stated that there is no conflict with CVSOs. Laura stated that there could be a conflict depending on the individual. Ron replied that this would apply to anyone on the committee. Laura agreed with that statement. The Memorandum that was released before was not an official Attorney General's Opinion.

Mark Johnson, ND Veterans Home Administrator

► Thanked everyone for attending the grand opening.

► Admitted 20 on basic side, with 19 beds available and 20 on skilled side, with 5 more beds to fill. They are averaging 8-10 tours per week. Many applications are being received; background checks are done also so it takes some time to admit residents.

► Utilizing the space at the facility for events such as a steak and shrimp dinner, a pancake feed and a block party where each household and each department brought a dish to share.

► Last year had a quality study which showed high infection control rates, and weight loss. Infection control rates went straight down and weight gain is up due to the smaller groups setting.

► News article by Otter Tail Electric about the Veterans Home since the entire building is electric. It talks about the geothermal system and the amount of savings the Home will realize. He will forward the link to the article.

Lee Finstad asked what the time frame is for an application to be processed. Mark replied it takes at least two weeks for a background check, for a total of one month for processing time.

Mike Fisher asked what the number one reason applications are denied. Mark answered that the background check has uncovered three sex offenders and three pedophiles. Also, the Board has a recommendation an applicant must have six months of sobriety before they will be admitted if they have a chemical addiction.

Norris Braaten, ND Veterans Home Governing Board Chairman

Read a letter from the daughter of a resident at the Home. She is very impressed with the facility and the staff and how well her father is taken care of at the facility.

Committee reviewed bills that failed last legislative session. Will be resurrecting H.B. 1429, relating to the accreditation on service officers. Veterans Home requested the Committee look at legislation regarding donated funds so they go directly to the Home for disbursement (re: Melvin Norgaard bequeath). Discussed HB 1170, license plate bill, no action taken. HB1178, exemption of retirement pay, will not be going forward. Other bills discussed - SB 2321, 40% discount for deployed veterans; remove 50% from property tax exemption; USERRA for state active duty; sliding scale for dependent disability benefits for education benefits for dependents. Access to the legislative history of the bills are available through the Department's website.

Discussed "Veterans Remembered" Flag- not going to take action to bring this to legislation. Lee spoke on the need for a legislative lobbyist next session. He talked about asking the Coordinating Council to hire one and the need for veterans' organizations to get more involved in the legislative process.

Motion by John Adolf to approve report, second by Mike Fischer. Motion passed.

Chairman Schuchard asked about the release of information form to county veteran service officers. The release of information form allows the Department as a Power of Attorney (P.O.A.) to send VA correspondence to the appropriate county. Ron Otto feels this should also allow the State to turn over the claims file to a county when the veteran chooses to work with a CVSO instead of the State Department. On a county level, county veterans service officers can share claims folders; but by law, the State Bismarck office isn't able to release these files to the county. Ron feels the State is in violation of the law since the State is providing the VA information to the counties but will not release the file to a county. If this can't be fixed it's not going to work to have a service officer at the Department. The Commissioner is researching this issue for clarification.

Chairman's Report – Lyle Schuchard

Most of everything he was going to talk about has already been covered. There is a need to get legislators to our meetings so they can be more informed about ACOVA. The Stand Down in Bismarck served over 200 veterans. They received a federal grant of $7,000 to help pay for the bills.
