Cited in General Orders No. 48, Headquarters, 35th Division, AEF, France, July 16, 1918. The Division Commander desires to commend the soldierly conduct of the officers and enlisted men of Companies I, K and L, 138th Infantry, who, although they were exposed to a heavy bombardment and suffered considerable losses on July 11, 1918, nevertheless held their trenches, thereby probably preventing a successful coup de main by the enemy and causing him serious loss. It is by displaying such qualities that our men will increase our own morale and destroy that of the enemy. With such men in our ranks it is only a question of time until we gain the ascendancy. The admiration of all members of this division is due the members of these companies, whom we cannot but regard with the greatest pride.
