VETERANS JUSTICE OUTREACH

Jennifer Kimball Walter, LICSW

Crisis mitigation through timely outreach.

UNITED STATES
DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS

The VJO Mission

- To avoid the unnecessary criminalization of mental illness and extended incarceration among Veterans by ensuring that eligible justice-involved Veterans have timely access to VHA services as clinically indicated.
- VJO Specialists are responsible for direct outreach, assessment, and case management for justice-involved Veterans in local courts and jails, and liaison with local justice system partners.

Who we serve

- Justice-Involved Veterans
 - A Veteran in contact with local law enforcement.
 - A Veteran in a local jail
 - A Veteran in adjudication

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS

History

- 1995 - The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) partnered with the Center for Mental Health Services' National GAINS Center.
 - Began an implementation and evaluation program of jail diversion initiatives.
 - Early identification and outreach found to be key.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS

History

- 2003 - The President's New Freedom Commission on Mental Health called for mental health treatment to be readily available in Communities so that mental health consumers no longer faced unemployment, homelessness, or incarceration because of untreated mental illness.
 - Identified policies to maximize the utility of existing resources.
 - Improve coordination of treatments and services.
 - Promote successful community integration of Veterans.

UNITED STATES
DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS

History

- 2008 – SAMHSA and the National GAINS Center funded state and local pilot initiatives to connect justice-involved Veterans with needed mental health and substance abuse services.

Sequential Intercept Model

- Used as a roadmap by the VJO
- Indicates that people move through the justice system in predictable ways.
- Allows for multiple opportunities of intercept.
- Looks to identify Veterans in need and move them away from avoidable contact with the justice system and into the appropriate treatment.
